You can make an enquiry in respect of a payment instruction, whether made by you or another person by contacting us 24x7 on 08081 31 41 51 (freephone from UK landlines).

13. Cut-off times, execution times and when you can cancel an instruction to make a payment

- 13.1 The cut-off time is the time before which on a working day a payment or a payment instruction is treated as received by us for that working day. This means if we receive a payment or a payment instruction after the cut-off time, we will treat this as received by us on the following working day. If we receive a payment or a payment instruction on a day that is not a working day, we will treat this as received on the next working day. Cut-off times vary for different types of payment and for different ways in which the payment is requested. Information about cut-off times for each type of payment is set out in the rates and charges leaflet.
- 13.2 Some types of payments have additional currency cut-off times. For these payments, you must give your instructions before the cut-off times, that apply, for us to treat the instructions as received before the cut-off time. Please see the rates and charges for information about currency cut-off times.
- 13.3 The maximum execution time (the time it takes for the payment to reach the recipient's bank), is set out in the rates and charges leaflet. The time at which this begins will depend on whether your payment instructions were received before or after the cut-off time.
- 13.4 Where you have instructed us to make a payment immediately, we will begin processing the instructions when they are received and you cannot cancel your instructions after you have given them to us.

- 13.5 If you instruct us to make a payment on a future date, we will begin to process the payment on the date you specify. In this case, whether you may cancel your instructions will vary for different types of payment and for different ways in which the payment is requested.
- 13.6 After any time limits for cancellation, referred to in this clause, have expired, you may cancel your instructions only if we agree and in the case of debit card payments and direct debits, if the person who receives the payment also agrees.
- 13.7 You can instruct us to stop or cancel a future dated payment by informing us via Branch, Telephone banking service or Internet banking provided:
1. we have not told the person to whom it is payable or their bank that it will be paid; or
 2. you ask us not later than 1200 Hrs of the day before which the payment is due; or

We will advise the retailer or other supplier if we are prepared to authorise the payment to be made from your account. For decision-making and card-misuse prevention purposes, we may refer an authorisation request back to the retailer for further information. This may result in you being asked to produce further identification. This may also be done on a random basis for fraud prevention purposes.
- 16.3 We will not be responsible if a retailer or other supplier refuses to accept your debit card or if you cannot use your debit card to make a payment.
- 16.4 We will normally deduct from your account the amount of a debit card payment made in the UK and abroad on the same day that we receive the request from the retailer's bank for the payment to be made. We will make the payment to the retailer's bank on the same day that we receive the settlement request from VISA.
- 16.5 Any foreign currency debit card payments are converted to sterling by VISA. These transactions are subject to our foreign exchange charge of 2.75%. We will deduct the payment from your account once we receive details of the payment from the card scheme at the latest, the next working day.

17. Cash withdrawals

- 17.1 You can withdraw cash from your account over a branch counter or from an ATM machine that allows cash withdrawals and has a VISA logo. There is a limit on the amount you can withdraw each day from ATM machines. This will be informed to you in the debit card terms and conditions.
- 17.2 Cash withdrawals from ATM machines will be deducted from your account on the same day. For cash withdrawals at ATM machines outside of the UK, the amount of any cash withdrawal made in a currency other than sterling will be converted into sterling as set out in clause 16.5. See the rates and charges leaflet for charges that will apply.

19. Cheques You Issue

- 19.1 When you write a cheque you must take all reasonable precautions to prevent anyone else altering it or making a forgery. This includes (but is not limited to):
- using black ink which cannot be erased, never leaving a gap between words or figures
 - never signing a cheque before you use it.
 - when you are writing a cheque you must clearly write the name of the person you are paying the cheque to and also put some additional information as this will help us to prevent fraud. If you are paying the cheque to a large organization, financial institution, bank or building society you may add further details on the payee line (e.g. Inland Revenue re. XYZ).
 - in all cases you should draw a line through the unused space on the cheque so that it will prevent unauthorised people to add extra number and names.
 - you must sign all alterations to cheques you issue.
- 19.2 You can write cheques only in the currency of your account.
- 19.3 You should not post-date a cheque. If you do so and the cheque is presented to us before that date, we may pay it. If we do so, we will have no liability to you.
- 19.4 If we receive a cheque written by you that is more than six months old we may decline to pay it.
- 19.5 We may refuse to clear a cheque if your account does not have sufficient funds.
- 19.6 You must tell us as soon as possible if you become aware that any cheque has been lost or stolen.
- 19.7 If you issue a cheque outside the UK, we will deduct the SWIFT charges from your account for remitting the funds. The details on SWIFT charges are provided in the rates and charges leaflet.
- 19.8 We will also tell you the different interest rates which have applied to your savings accounts during the year and any changes in the Bank of England base rate (unless we have already told you personally about these or if your savings account has less than £500 in it).
- 19.9 If within a reasonable period after the entry has been made on your statement, there is a dispute with us about a cheque paid from your account, we will give you the cheque or a copy as evidence. If there is an unreasonable delay after you have told us about it, we will add the amount of the cheque to your account until we have sorted the matter out.
- 19.10 If you ask us to “stop” a cheque we will try to do so, though we cannot guarantee it, provided:
- the cheque has not been paid already.
 - we receive the request to stop it before 1100 Hrs on the day the cheque is presented for payment.
 - you have provided sufficient details for us to identify the transaction.
 - we will charge to “stop” the cheque. The charges are provided in rates and charges leaflet.
- 19.11 When you issue a cheque on your account, the amount will normally be deducted from your account two working days after the recipient pays it into their account, e.g. the amount of a cheque paid in on a Monday will normally be deducted from your account on that Wednesday. More time may be needed for a cheque paid into a building society account or any bank outside England or Wales or any account held at a non-clearing bank.
- However:
- if a cheque you issue is paid in at the counter of any of our branches, the amount will be deducted from your account on the same day;
 - if you cash a cheque at any of our branches, the amount will be deducted from your account on the same day;
- 19.12 Banking of cheques for payment will at all times, be subject to the rules and clearing processes of any cheque clearing system(s) used by us.

19.13 Clearing cycle

19.13.1 The clearing cycle is the time taken for money paid from or to your account to be deducted or added. Each UK cheque paid into any ICI Bank UK account clears on the sixth working day from the date of the deposit of the cheque. Whilst we may credit such amounts to your account on the date of presentation, the funds will be available to withdraw on the fourth working day from the date of the deposit for both current and savings accounts. The amount deposited will start earning interest from the second working day of the deposit for all types of accounts viz. current, savings and fixed deposits. If the bank, building society or other organisation that the cheque was drawn on decides not to honour it, they will normally explain the reason for non-payment. Thereafter, we will deduct the amount of the cheque from your balance no later than the end of the sixth business day after it was added to your balance. In all circumstances, you shall be the owner of funds on the sixth working day of the deposit of your cheque and the amount of your cheque cannot be reclaimed from your balance without your consent unless you were knowingly involved in a fraud concerning the cheque. It should be noted that all cheques deposited in the Branches by 14:00 hrs shall go into processing the same day. All cheques deposited after 14:00 hrs shall get into processing on the next working day.

19.13.2 If cheques are deposited with Giro Slips at any of the Banks, though you will earn interest from the second working day but you will be able to withdraw funds from the sixth working day only.

19.13.3 Where legal reasons require, or in certain limited circumstances beyond our control, the payment of a cheque into your account may be prevented or may take longer than the time periods set out herein.

19.13.4 We may debit your account to recover any amount credited in error without notification.

19.14 Cheques returned unpaid and paying in cheques

The bank on which a cheque is drawn may return it unpaid, even if we have let you withdraw the money and/or the amount on the cheque has been included in your available balance. When a cheque is returned unpaid, it will usually happen three or four working days after the cheque has been paid into your account, but it could be later. It is because of this, our normal practice is to ask you to wait at least six days before you can draw against a cheque.

19.15 If a cheque paid into your account is returned unpaid, the amount of the cheque will be deducted from your account. If you withdraw against a cheque which is later returned unpaid, and the deduction of the amount of the unpaid cheque from your account would either make your account go overdrawn, we will treat this as an unauthorised overdraft. If we do so, we will apply interest and charges as mentioned in our Rates and Charges leaflet.

19.16 If a cheque paid into your account is returned to us unpaid, we will not debit your account beyond the sixth working day after it was accepted by us.

19.17 A cheque you pay in may be returned more than six working days after the date we accepted it:

- if you or we reasonably suspect you, are knowingly involved in a fraud concerning the cheque; or
- you have given your express consent.

19.18 Foreign cheque

19.18.1 A foreign cheque is a cheque drawn in a foreign currency, or a cheque in sterling drawn on a bank based abroad. It includes other forms of foreign payment. We may agree to negotiate a foreign cheque, although we are not obliged to do so. This means that we will add to your account the full amount or the converted amount. If it is returned unpaid, we will have recourse against you and anyone who has signed or endorsed it and we can deduct from your account either the amount we added or if we converted the cheque into another currency, the amount reconverted at the exchange rate applicable on the date we make the deduction. In case of clearing of non-UK cheques, we may take approximately 21 working days for crediting cleared funds into your account. For a foreign cheque, we will convert the amount at our applicable rate of exchange at the time of conversion. To know the exchange rate used, please contact us.

19.18.2 For negotiation of a foreign cheque, we will deduct our charges when you pay it in. If it is returned unpaid, we will deduct a further fee. Agent's fees (see condition 19.19.6) may be payable whether the cheque is paid or not.

19.18.3 On request, we will give you details of how we deal with interest following negotiation of a foreign cheque.

19.18.4 We will not be responsible for any loss in exchanging the proceeds of a foreign cheque into the currency of your account.

19.18.5 We may decide or agree to send a foreign cheque for collection. For this we may:

- send it directly to the Bank on which it is drawn and credit your account once we have received the payment; or
- pass it through the payment system of the country where it needs to be presented for payment. We may appoint an agent in that country, which may be an affiliate of ours, to do this for us. We will credit your account with the amount of the foreign cheque when our agents or we have received the funds and are satisfied that they can be credited to your account.

This may involve us or our agents waiting after receiving funds from the bank upon which the foreign cheque is to be drawn, to be certain that it has been cleared and has not been returned before we credit it into your account.

19.18.6 For a foreign cheque collection we will deduct a fee from your account when we receive the proceeds, or if it is not paid, we will charge a fee from your account when we receive the unpaid cheque. Our fees will include any charges made by our agents and/or the bank on which the cheque is drawn.

D. Other Terms and Conditions

1. Miscellaneous

- 1.1 Each condition in these Terms and Conditions is separate from all the other conditions. This means that if one condition is found to be void or invalid that will not affect the validity of any of the other conditions.
- 1.2 If we do not enforce any of our rights that we may have under these Terms and Conditions, or if we delay enforcing them, that does not stop us from taking any action to enforce our rights in the future.
- 1.3 In the event that any event outside our control (including industrial action) stops or delays us from performing our obligations to you, then we may elect either:
 - 1.3.1 to postpone performance until we are able to perform our obligations; or
 - 1.3.2 to close the account by giving 60 days notice to you.
- 1.4 You may not transfer any of your rights or duties. We are entitled to transfer all or part of our rights or duties or arrange for any other party to carry out our rights or duties under these Terms and Conditions.
- 1.5 Under UK legislation, all deposit monies held by you with us (as a bank authorised and regulated by the FSA) are, in the unlikely event of us ever becoming insolvent, protected. We are a member of the Financial Services Compensation Scheme established under the Financial Services and Market Act 2000. In respect of deposits with ICICI Bank UK PLC, payments under the Scheme are limited to 100% of the first £85,000 of a depositor's total deposits with the Bank. Where two depositors hold a joint account, each depositor will receive a maximum of £85,000 compensation in respect of the claim, giving a total of £170,000.

Important information about compensation arrangements:

The FSCS can pay compensation to depositors if a bank is unable to meet its financial obligations. Most depositors - including most individuals and small businesses - are covered by the scheme.

In respect of deposits, an eligible depositor is entitled to claim up to £85,000. For joint accounts each account holder is treated as having a claim in respect of their share so, for a joint account held by two eligible depositors, the maximum amount that could be claimed would be £85,000 each (making a total of £170,000). The £85,000 limit relates to the combined amount in all the eligible depositor's accounts with the bank including their share of any joint account, and not to each separate account.

For further information about the scheme (including the amounts covered and eligibility to claim) please ask at your local branch, refer to the FSCS website www.FSCS.org.uk or call 020 7892 7300 or 0800 678 1100.

- 1.6 We reserve the right to vary or withdraw the services under these Terms and Conditions. We will tell you when we do this.
- 1.7 We may put financial limits on the transactions that can be carried out over telephone or through Internet.
This agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the English laws and any dispute between you and us shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of England and Wales.
