

Source: Yorkshire Post (South/Sheffield) {Main}
Edition:
Country: UK
Date: Friday 9, October 2009

BRIEFLY

Less than half save cash for Christmas

Fewer than 50 per cent of people have saved money towards the cost of Christmas this year, a survey showed.

About 46 per cent of people said they were already setting aside cash to cover the cost of the festive season, while a further 10 per cent plan to start saving soon, according to ICICI Bank UK.

Some 7 per cent of those questioned said they would not be "doing" Christmas this year.