Payment Services, and there are cleared funds in your account. There may be a delay in carrying out your instructions while fraud prevention checks take place.

6.3 We may refuse to make a payment (and we will not be responsible for any loss) if:

- Any of the conditions set out in this section B on Payment Services have not been met; or
- We are not reasonably satisfied the transaction or the instruction is lawful; or
- We consider that your account has been or is likely to be misused for an illegal purpose; or

7 Payments that involve a foreign currency exchange (SWIFT payments)

7.1 SWIFT Payments – you can make payments from your GBP, USD or EUR accounts, through any of our branches. If you ask us to make a payment in a currency other than the currency of your account, we will use our prevailing exchange rate for the relevant currencies applicable at the time of conversion. If you would like to know the exchange rate to be used or actually used, please contact us at any of our branches.

9 Enquiries about an instruction

You can make an enquiry in respect of each payment instruction, whether made by you or another person by visiting your nearest branch.

10 Cut-off times, execution times and when you can cancel an instruction to make a payment

10.1 The cut-off time is the time before which on a working day a payment or a payment instruction is treated as received by us on that working day. This means if we receive a payment or a payment instruction after the cut-off time, we will treat this as received by us on the following working day. If we receive a payment or a payment instruction on a day that is not a working day, we will treat this as received on the next working day. Cut-off times vary for different types of payment and for different ways in which the payment is requested. Information about cut-off times for each type of payment is set out in the rates and charges leaflet.

- 10.2 Some types of payments have additional currency cut-off times. For these payments, you must give your instructions before the cut-off times that apply for us to treat the instructions as received before the cut-off time. Please see the rates and charges for information about currency cut-off times.
- 10.3 The maximum execution time (the time it takes for the payment to reach the recipient's bank), is set out in the rates and charges leaflet. The time at which this begins will depend on whether your payment instructions were received before or after the cut-off time.
- 10.4 Where you have instructed us to make a payment immediately, we will begin processing the instructions when they are received and you cannot cancel your instructions after you have given them to us.
- 10.5 If you instruct us to make a payment on a future date, we will begin to process the payment on the date you specify. In this case, whether you may cancel your instructions will vary for different types of payment and for different ways in which the payment is requested.
- 10.6 After any time limits for cancellation referred to in this clause 10 have expired, you may only cancel your instructions if we agree and, in the case of direct debits, if the person who receives the payment also agrees.
- 10.7 You can instruct us to stop or cancel a future dated payment by visiting any of our branches provided:
- We have not told the person to whom it is payable or their bank that it will be paid; or

15 Cheques you issue

15.1 When you write a cheque you must take all reasonable precautions to prevent anyone else altering it or making a forgery. This includes (but is not limited to);

- Use black ink which cannot be erased, not leaving a gap between words or figures.
- Never sign a cheque before you use it.
- When you are writing a cheque you must clearly write the name of the person you are paying the cheque to and also put some additional information as this will help us to prevent fraud.
- If you are making a cheque payable to a bank, a building society, a large organisation or a financial institution, do not make the cheque payable simply to that organisation. Add further details in the payee line (for example XYZ Bank, ABC Ltd, account number XXXXXXXX).
- In all cases you should draw a line through the unused space on the cheque so that it will prevent unauthorised people to add extra number and names.
- You must sign all alterations to cheques you issue.

15.2 You can only write cheques in the currency of your account.

15.3 You should not post-date a cheque. If you do so and the cheque is presented to us before that date, we may pay it. If we do so, we will have no liability to you.

15.4 If we receive a cheque written by you that is more than six months old we may decline to pay it.

15.5 We may refuse to clear a cheque if your account does not have sufficient funds.

15.6 You must tell us as soon as possible if you become aware that any cheque has been lost or stolen.

15.7 If you issue a cheque outside the UK, we will deduct the SWIFT charges from your account for remitting the funds. The details on SWIFT charges are provided in the rates and charges leaflet.

15.8 We will keep original cheques paid from your account, or copies, for six years unless we have already returned these to you.

15.9 If, within a reasonable period after the entry has been made on your statement, there is a dispute with us about a cheque paid from your account, we will give you the cheque or a copy as evidence. If there is an unreasonable delay after you have told us about it, we will add the amount of the cheque to your account until we have sorted the matter out.

15.10 If you ask us to "stop" a cheque we will try to do so, though we cannot guarantee it, provided:

- The cheque has not been paid already;
- We receive the request to stop it before 1100 Hrs on the day the cheque is presented for payment.
- You have provided sufficient details for us to identify the transaction. We will charge to "stop" the cheque. The charges are provided in rates and charges leaflet.

15.11 When you issue a cheque on your account, the amount will normally be deducted from your account two working days after the recipient pays it into their account, e.g. the amount of a cheque paid in on a Monday will normally be deducted from your account on that Wednesday. More time may be needed for a cheque paid into a building society account or any bank outside England or Wales or any account held at a non-clearing bank.

However:

- If a cheque you issue is paid in at the counter of any of our branches, the amount will be deducted from your account on the same day;
- If you cash a cheque at any of our branches, the amount will be deducted from your account on the same day;

15.12 Banking of cheques for payment will be at all times subject to the rules and clearing processes of any cheque clearing system(s) used by us.

15.13 Clearing cycle

15.13.1 The clearing cycle is the time taken for money paid from or to your account to be deducted or added. Each UK cheque paid into any ICICI Bank UK account clears on the sixth working day from the date of the deposit of the cheque. Whilst we may credit such amounts to your account on the date of presentation, the funds will be available to withdraw on the fourth working day from the date of the deposit for both current and savings accounts. The amount deposited will start earning interest from the second working day of the deposit for all types of accounts viz. current and fixed deposits. If the Bank, building society or other organisation that the cheque was drawn on decides not to honour it, they will normally explain the reason for non-payment. Thereafter, we will deduct the amount of the cheque from your balance no later than the end of the sixth business day after it was added to your balance. In all circumstances, you shall be the owner of funds on the sixth working day of the deposit of your cheque and the amount of your cheque cannot be reclaimed from your balance without your consent unless you were knowingly involved in a fraud concerning the cheque. It should be noted that all cheques deposited in the Branches by 14:00 hrs shall go into processing the same day. All cheques deposited after 14:00 hrs shall get into processing on the next working day.

15.13.2 If cheques are deposited with Giro Slips at any of the Banks, though you will earn interest from the second working day but will only be able to withdraw funds from the sixth working day.

15.13.3 Where legal reasons require, or in certain limited circumstances beyond our control, the payment of a cheque into your account may be prevented or may take longer than the time periods set out herein.

15.13.4 We may debit your account to recover any amount credited in error.

15.14 Cheques returned unpaid and paying in cheques

The bank on which a cheque is drawn may return it unpaid, even if we have let you withdraw the money and/or the amount on the cheque has been included in your available balance. When a cheque is returned unpaid, it will usually happen three or four working days after the cheque has been paid into your account, but it could be later. Because of this, it is our normal practice to ask you to wait at least six days before you can draw against a cheque (see clause 15.17).

15.15 If a cheque paid into your account is returned unpaid, the amount of the cheque will be deducted from your account. If you withdraw against a cheque which is later returned unpaid, and the deduction of the amount of the unpaid cheque from your account would either make your account go overdrawn, we will treat this as an unauthorised overdraft. If we do so, we will apply interest and charges as mentioned in our Rates and Charges leaflet.

15.16 If a cheque paid into your account is returned to us unpaid, we will not debit your account beyond the sixth working day after it was accepted by us.

15.17 A cheque you pay in may be returned more than six working days after the date we accepted it:

- where you are, or we reasonably suspect you are, knowingly involved in a fraud concerning the cheque; or
- if you have given your express consent.

15.18 Foreign cheques

15.18.1 A foreign cheque is a cheque drawn in a foreign currency, or a cheque in sterling drawn on a bank based abroad. It includes other forms of foreign payment. We may agree to negotiate a foreign cheque, although we are not obliged to do so. This means that we will add to your account the full amount or the converted amount. If it is returned unpaid, we will have recourse against you and anyone who has signed or endorsed it and we can deduct from your account either the amount we added or if we converted the cheque into another currency, the amount reconverted at the exchange rate applicable on the date we make the deduction. In case of clearing of non-UK cheques, we may take approximately 21 working days for crediting cleared funds into your account. For a foreign cheque, we will convert the amount at our applicable rate of exchange at the time of conversion. If you would like to know the exchange rate used, please contact us.

15.18.2 For negotiation of a foreign cheque, we will deduct our charges when you pay it in. If it is returned unpaid, we will deduct a further fee. Agent's fees (see clause 15.18.6 in this section B) may be payable whether the cheque is paid or not.

15.18.3 We will give you details of how we deal with interest following negotiation of a foreign cheque on request.

15.18.4 We will not be responsible for any loss in exchanging the proceeds of a foreign cheque into the currency of your account.

15.18.5 We may decide or agree to send a foreign cheque for collection. For this we may:

- Send it directly to the Bank on which it is drawn and credit your account once we have received the payment; or
- Pass it through the payment system of the country where it needs to be presented for payment. We may appoint an agent in that country, which may be an affiliate of ours, to do this for us. We will credit your account with the amount of the foreign cheque when our agents or we have received the funds and are satisfied that they can be credited to your account. This may involve us or our agents waiting after receiving funds from the bank upon which the foreign cheque is to be drawn, to be certain that it has been cleared and has not been returned before we credit it into your account.

15.18.6 For a foreign cheque collection we will deduct a fee from the account when we receive the proceeds, or if it is not paid, we will charge a fee from the account when we receive the unpaid cheque. Our fees will include any charges made by our agents and/or the bank on which the cheque is drawn.

16 Standing instructions

16.1 We will on the day specified in the Standing order, debit your account and transfer the money through the BACS system to the bank or building society account of the recipient. It will take approximately 3 working days for the recipient to receive the money.

16.2 Standing instructions may be subject to service charges stipulated by us from time to time. We will keep you informed about the same through the agreed modes of communication.

16.3 If the standing instruction is not executed on the due date due to reasons including but not limited to, insufficient balance in your account, dormancy etc., we will not attempt to fulfill the same instruction again. In case you do wish to make the payment, then please contact us to provide us with separate instructions. We will continue to execute all future standing instructions, if any.

16.4 You can instruct us to stop or cancel a future dated payment by visiting any of our branches provided:

- a. The amount has not already been taken out of your account; or
- b. We have not told the person to whom it is payable or their bank that it will be paid; or
- c. You ask us not later than 1200 Hrs on the day before which the payment is due.

D. Other Terms and Conditions

1 Miscellaneous

1.1 Each condition in these Terms and Conditions is separate from all the other conditions. This means that if one condition is found to be void or invalid that will not affect the validity of any of the other conditions.

1.2 If we do not enforce any of our rights that we may have under these Terms and Conditions or if we delay enforcing them, that does not stop us from taking any action to enforce our rights in the future.

1.3 In the event that any event outside our control (including industrial action) stops or delays us from performing our obligations to you, then we may elect either:

- To postpone performance until we are able to perform our obligations; or
- To close the account by giving 30 days' notice to you.

1.4 You may not transfer any of your rights or duties. We are entitled to transfer all or part of our rights or duties or arrange for any other party to carry out our rights or duties under these Terms and Conditions.

- 1.5 Under UK legislation, all deposit monies held by you with us (as a bank authorised and regulated by the FSA) are, in the unlikely event of us ever becoming insolvent, protected. We are a member of the Financial Services Compensation Scheme established under the Financial Services and Market Act 2000. In respect of deposits with ICICI Bank UK PLC, payments under the Scheme are limited to 100% of the first £85,000 of a depositor's total deposits with the Bank. Where two depositors hold a joint account, each depositor will receive a maximum of £85,000 compensation in respect of the claim, giving a total of £170,000.

Important information about compensation arrangements:

The FSCS can pay compensation to depositors if a bank is unable to meet its financial obligations. Most depositors - including most individuals and small businesses - are covered by the scheme.

In respect of deposits, an eligible depositor is entitled to claim up to £85,000. For joint accounts each account holder is treated as having a claim in respect of their share so, for a joint account held by two eligible depositors, the maximum amount that could be claimed would be £85,000 each (making a total of £170,000). The £85,000 limit relates to the combined amount in all the eligible depositor's accounts with the bank including their share of any joint account, and not to each separate account.

For further information about the scheme (including the amounts covered and eligibility to claim) please ask at your local branch, refer to the FSCS website www.FSCS.org.uk or call 020 7892 7300 or 0800 678 1100.

- 1.6 We reserve the right to vary or withdraw the services under these Terms and Conditions. We will tell you when we do this.
- 1.7 We may put financial limits on the transactions that can be carried out over telephone or through Internet.
- 1.8 "ICICI" and our logo are our registered trademarks. We have a license for or own all copyrights for the website through which you access the service and all trademarks and other materials used on it.
